Last Saturday night, at the Street Railway company's auditorium, Chas. R. bette, of California, and Jack Grady, of Colorado, met in the 24-foot arena, to decide the 133 pound championship of the outhwest, and there were present to enoy the scientific display of skill, with mit-

At 9:45 p. m , during the wait for the principals, Billy Lewis and his brother, 'Kid" Lewis, gave an exhibition of four counts, and both proved themselves clever generals with the gloves.

The bat was passed around among the spectators, which was allowed upon the securance that those who had paid admission would not become dissatisfied and claim that they were being "held up," and the little purse obtained handed over

After this side event, Billy Lewis walked to the middle of the ring and made an onen challenge, that he was willing to meet any 145-pound man in the southwest, or elacwhere, with gloves of course, for a state purse or for the gate receipts.

This defit of Lewis' was followed by "Kid" Dovey bounding into the ring, chal lenging to meet any 115 man for a purse from $100 to $250, and flashed up $25 in ash as a forfeit.

A well known sporting gentleman, with bran new, nobby suit on listened attentively to what "Kid" Dovey had to say, and just as seen as he had remarked, "Here's $25 as a forfeit," the gentleman covered the forfe:t and the money was placed in the hands of a reliable gentleman. The "Kid" will be accommodated in a very short time.

Eighth round-Both men came up apparently determined to en! the contest, and a terribie clinch occurred. The got mixed on the floor.

Ninth round - Grady came to the cratch looking groggy. Rochette rushed Gra'y, driving him to his corner with a blow on the head, when they clinched. and Grady again used his tactics of attempting to throw Rochetts. This round a decidly fav rable to Rochette

An officer, who was present to see that the bout was according to law, announced that he would be compelled to stop the bout if any more wreatling was indulged in. This entertainment was advertised as a boxing contest and it must be carried out on that line. The remarks of the of foer had the desired effect

Tenth round-Rochette and Grady showed up fresh, concidering the lively showed up fresh, considering the lively preceding rounds. Rochette proved himself a more scientific boxer, and got in the 18th and is helpless.
